MEDIA RELEASE

Meret Lüthi awarded the «GOLDEN BOW»

Concert and award ceremony

July 5th 2024, Friday, 7:00 pm

St Michael's Church, Meiringen (Bernese Oberland)

For over twenty years, the Foundation of the Swiss Violin Making School has honoured renowned artists with the «Golden Bow» for outstanding achievements.

The winner of the Golden Bow 2024 is Meret Lüthi, violinist and artistic director of the early music orchestra «Les Passions de l'Âme». With this honour, she joins an illustrious line-up of artists who already hold this prize, among others Antje Weithaas, Chiara Banchini, Isabelle Faust, Tabea Zimmermann, Patricia Kopatchinskaja, Kim Kashkashian, Hans Heinz Schneeberger, Thomas and Patrick Demenga, Thomas Füre, Thomas Zehetmair and many more.

The jury honours Meret Lüthi for the development of her internationally renowned orchestra «Les Passions de l'Âme» and for sharing her impressive inventiveness and captivating programmes with audiences for over 15 years.

Award of the «Golden Bow» 2024 to Meret Lüthi and opening concert of the festival «Musikfestwoche Meiringen» with «Les Passions de l'Âme» on July 5th 2024, 7:00 pm, Michaelskirche Meiringen.
